	Approved For Release 2002/07/23 : CIA-RDP80-00810A003600540009
COUNTRY	CLASSIFICATION SECRET, 3022638 East Certany REPORT NO.	25X1A
TOPIC	Military Information from Oranienburg
EVALUATION	see below PLACE OBTAINED	25X1A
DATE OF CON	TENT25X1A	MINOR COMO TO A MINOR AND
DATE OBTAINS	DATE PREPARED 27 January 1954	nn anns, sealar meilleur e missell all maine missellage ann an ann an ann an ann an ann an an a
REFERENCES.	25X1A
PAGES	2 ENCLOSURES (NO. & TYPE)
REMARKS
TEPINIO		mas Miller, amelikar dan Miller mendelak dalah sebagai kelangkan melaksi dalam sebagai sebagai sebagai sebagai Sebagai sebagai sebaga
hideministra - valik valike 64-d v y v v va america del vende embercanca.		e Calagonia i de Berenca i i indica (i i i i i i i i i i i i i i i i i i i
	A section of the section of
A 211BAF		20 Jan 19
SOURCE		25X1X
	insignia, black-bordered black and black-bordered crimson epaul training activity was observed. That mann Strasse and Breitsche were blocked. A fuel dump and a tank truck with tank trailer we the southwestern cornered the billeting area.	idt Strasse
25X1X	On 11 January, the western section of the Sachsenhausen concent was occupied by about 1,000 troops wearing red-bordered black e tank, signal, and motor transport insignia. Neither routine dut vehicular traffic were observed between 7 and 11 January.	paulets with
3.	On 11 January, the Weisse Stadt Settlement was occupied by about troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank, artillery motor transport insignia. Some officers were blue-bordered black with engineer and signal insignia. On 8 January, about 60 E we in close-order drill, while student drivers were seen on two signal insignia.	, signal, and k epaulets re engaged 25X1
4. 25X1B	that Pajor Babushkin (phonetically) was supply officer and supe the administration of the Schuetzenhaus installation on Bernaus and the pertinent kitchen at 18 to 29 Diana Strasse. T-34 tank	rior to
25X1B 5.	In late December, source learned at the Weisse Stadt settlement Sherback (fnu) was superior to building No 9 occupied by soldie red-bordered black enaulets with tank insignia, and the school building No 13. Vehicles observed included:	rs wearing
	OLAGORIOATHOM SPERM LOUIS ON FO - 14424 T

25X18  6. Potween 1 and 7 January, the officers' mess at the Sachsenhausen concentration carp was located in the section 2 A of building No 22/42, and 25/28.  1 dependents were quarted buildings Nos 13/20, 22/41, and 25/28.  1 buildings Nos 11, 13, and 15 buildings Nos 13/20, 22/41, and 25/28.  1 buildings Nos 11, 13, and 15 buildings Nos 12/42, and 25/28.  1 building Nos 11, 13, and 15 buildings Nos 12/42, and 25/28.  1 buildings Nos 11, 13, and 25 buildings Nos 12/42, and 25/28.  1 buildings Nos 11, 13, and 25 buildings Nos 12/42, and 25/28.  1 buildings Nos 11, 13, and 25/28.  1 buildings Nos 12/48.  1 buildings Nos 12/48.  1 buildings Nos 12/48.  2 build			SECRET
6. Between 1 and 7 January, the officers' mass at the Sachsenhausen concentration carp was located in the section 2 A of building No 22/LL. Officers with dependents were quartered in buildings No 13. 13, and 15 also were officers' quarters. Instruction was hold in the five class roces of building No 15. Deliding No 16. Deliding No 15. Deliding No 16. Deliding No 16. Deliding No 16. Deliding No 18. Deliding No 1				5X1A
6. Between 1 and 7 January, the officers' mass at the Sachsenhausen concentration carp was located in the section 2 A of building No 22/LL. Officers with dependents were quartered in buildings No 13. 13, and 15 also were officers' quarters. Instruction was hold in the five class roces of building No 15. Deliding No 16. Deliding No 15. Deliding No 16. Deliding No 16. Deliding No 16. Deliding No 18. Deliding No 1
6. Retween 1 and 7 January, the officers' mess at the Sachsenhausen concentration carp was located in the section 2 A of building No 22/AL. Officers with dependents were quartered in buildings No 18/20, 22/24, and 26/28. Fulidings No 11, 13, and 15 also were officers' quarters. Instruction was held in the five class rooms of building No 150. Buildings Nos 145 through 148 were scaled and guarded by a double sentry vearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia. Six or seven unnumbered 7-24 tanks, painted green, and several solidiers engaged in maintenance work were seen through the open gate of building No 149. The northern wing of building No 150 was occupied to caracity by soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia. Several Soviet women in civilian clothes were seen through the open gate of building No 88 on Bernauer Allee. On 3 January, about 400 BM, 40 officers, and 15 women soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets, some with tank insignia, left the billeting area toward the Schustzenhaus installation. After a prolongued period, source again observed Soviet officers with their women and children in the streets of Oranienburg. On 2 January, two unnumbered T-34 tanks, painted green, entered the installation, coming from the direction of Sachsenhausen. On and after 4 January, two unnumbered cirction of Sachsenhausen. On and after 4 January, two innumbered content of the first provided on the driving grounds behind the cenetery. On several days, groups of 20 to 30 soldiers with red-bordered black epaulets are arched from the Sachsenhausen concentration camp to the Weisse Stadt Sattlement toward Germandorf. On 2 January, 10 x 132-mm unnumbered and canvas-covered rocket launchers left the Weisse Stadt Sattlement toward Germandorf. On 2 January, 12 x 132-mm rocket launchers left the Weisse Stadt Sattlement toward Germandorf. On 2 January, 12 x 14 were the second of the couplets with a figure in second confirm the 16th (?) GGR II and the unidentified signal battalion of the division	25X1B
camp was located in the section 2 A of building No 22/24, and 26/28.  Buildings No 1J, 13, and 15 also were officers' quarters. Instruction was held in the five class rooms of building No 150. Buildings No 145 through 145 were sealed and guarded by a double sentry wearing red-bordered black egaulets with tank insignia. Six or seven unnumbered T-34 tanks, painted green, and several soldiers engaged in maintenance work were seen through the open gate of building No 140. The northern wing of building No 150 was occupied to capacity by soldiers wearing red-bordered black egaulets with tank insignia. Several Soviet women in civilian clothes were seen at building No 38 on Bernauer Allee. On 3 January, about 400 Mf, 40 officers, and 15 women soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets, some with tank insignia, left the billeting area toward the Schuetzschaus installation. After a prolongued period, source again observed Soviet officers with their women and children in the streets of Cranienburg. On 2 January, two unnumbered T-34 tanks, painted green, entered the installation, coming from the direction of Sachsenhausen. On and after 4 January, the driving school unit practiced on the driving grounds behind the cemetery. On several days, groups of 20 to 30 soldiers with red-bordered black epaulets marched from the Sachsenhausen concentration camp to the Melses Stadt Settlement therefrom they returned 2 or 3 hours later.  7. On 2 January, 10 x 132-um unnumbered and canvas-covered rocket launchers left the Melses Stadt Settlement toward Germendorf. On 2 January, 12 EM with red-bordered black epaulets did eliming practice with a 132-um rocket launcher in front of building No 37. On 5 January, 3 k x 132-um rocket launcher in front of building No 37. On 5 January, 3 k x 132-um rocket launcher in front of building No 37. On 5 January, 3 buildings are vaguely indicative of the 52rd Nurel Bn of the 25th Tank Div Michai believed to be stationed in the Weisse Stadt Settlement in front of the above installations.  25X1A    Commen	25X1X
seme number of rocket launchers drove in the opposite direction. On 6  January, 8 x 132-mm rocket launchers left the Weisse Stadt Settlement toward  Germendorf. On 2 January, 12 EM with red-bordered black epaulets did aiming  practice with a 132-mm rocket launcher in front of building No 37. On 5  January, about 30 EM wearing red-bordered black epaulets with signal insignia  and carrying signal equipment left the Weisse Stadt Settlement toward  Germendorf.  25X1A  Comment. Compared with reports by the same source and other sources  in early January 1954, there is no change in the occupation of the above  installations.  Isajor Sherback (fnu) is cerried  as supply officer of the 53rd Mircl Bn of the 25th Tank Div. Equipment and  insignia confirm the 16th (?) Gds RL and the unidentified signal battalion  of the division in the Weisse Stadt Settlement. Some of the vehicle  are vaguely indicative of the Hq 25th Tank Div which is believed to be stationed in the Weisse Stadt Settlement. Shuttle traffic rocket launchers 25X1  between the Weisse Stadt Settlement and the Sachsenhausen concentration camp  was previously reported by source of paragraph 6.  These rocket launchers were either old ones to be turned in or new ones; or  rocket launchers belonging to the KVP. For key to the numerical designations  of buildings at the Sachsenhausen concentration camp and Neisse Stadt Settlement  see sketch attached to respectively.			carp was located in the section 2 A of building No 22/44. Officers with dependents were quartered in buildings Nos 18/20, 22/24, and 26/28. Puildings No 11, 13, and 15 also were officers' quarters. Instruction was held in the five class rooms of building No 150. Buildings Nos 145 through 148 were sealed and guarded by a double sentry wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia. Six or seven unnumbered T-34 tanks, painted green, and several soldiers engaged in maintenance work were seen through the open gate of building No 149. The northern wing of building No 150 was occupied to capacity by soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia. Several Soviet women in civilian clothes were seen at building No 88 on Bernauer Allee. On 3 January, about 400 EM, 40 officers, and 15 women soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets, some with tank insignia, left the billeting area toward the Schuetzenhaus installation.  After a prolongued period, source again observed Soviet officers with their women and children in the streets of Oranienburg. On 2 January, two unnumbered T-34 tanks, painted green, entered the installation, coming from the direction of Sachsenhausen. On and after 4 January, the driving school unit practiced on the driving grounds behind the cemetery. On several days, groups of 20 to 30 soldiers with red-bordered black epaulets marched from the Sachsenhausen concentration camp to the Weisse Stadt Settlement wherefrom they returned 2 or 3 hours later.
in early January 1954, there is no change in the occupation of the above installations.    Najor Sherback (fnu) is carried as supply officer of the 53rd Ntrcl Bn of the 25th Tank Div. Equipment and insignia confirm the 16th (?) Gds RL and the unidentified signal battalion of the division in the Weisse Stadt Settlement. Some of the vehicle are vaguely indicative of the Hq 25th Tank Div which is believed to be stationed in the Weisse Stadt Settlement. Shuttle traffic rocket launchers 25X1 between the Weisse Stadt Settlement and the Sachsenhausen concentration camp was previously reported by source of paragraph 6.  These rocket launchers were either old ones to be turned in or new ones; or rocket launchers belonging to the KVP. For key to the numerical designations of buildings at the Sachsenhausen concentration camp and Weisse Stadt Settlement see sketch attached to respectively.		7.	seme number of rocket launchers drove in the opposite direction. On 6 January, 8 x 132-mm rocket launchers left the Weisse Stadt Settlement toward Germendorf. On 2 January, 12 EM with red-bordered black epaulets did aiming practice with a 132-mm rocket launcher in front of building No 37. On 5 January, about 30 EM wearing red-bordered black epaulets with signal insignia and carrying signal equipment left the Weisse Stadt Settlement toward
			in early January 1954, there is no change in the occupation of the above installations.  Bajor Sherback (fnu) is carried  as supply officer of the 53rd Mtrcl Bn of the 25th Tank Div. Equipment and insignia confirm the 16th (?) Gds RL and the unidentified signal battalion of the division in the Weisse Stadt Settlement. Some of the vehicle are vaguely indicative of the Hq 25th Tank Div which is believed to be stationed in the Weisse Stadt Settlement. Shuttle traffic rocket launchers 25 between the Weisse Stadt Settlement and the Sachsenhausen concentration camp was previously reported by source of paragraph 6.  These rocket launchers were either old ones to be turned in or new ones; or rocket launchers belonging to the KVP. For key to the numerical designations of buildings at the Sachsenhausen concentration camp and Weisse Stadt Settlement see sketch attached to respectively.	] 5X1 5X1A

SECRET,